

Sabre Holdings appoints Greg Webb as President of Sabre Travel Network

December 15, 2009, Southlake, TX – Sabre Holdings today announced that Greg Webb will assume the role of President, Sabre Travel Network, the world's leading provider of high-performance travel solutions. In this new role, Webb will take responsibility for the overall performance of the Sabre Travel Network business around the world.

Webb has been with Sabre for 14 years and has experience with all aspects of the Travel Network business including leading the marketing organization since 2005 as well as managing the company's supplier relationships, Travel Network business in Asia, and Sabre's Hospitality Solutions business.

"Greg has proven himself to be an exceptional executive leader with an excellent understanding of the issues and opportunities that our dynamic industry faces. I am confident that Greg's global insight and deep knowledge of the business will further position Sabre Travel Network for continued growth in both existing and emerging markets, while also facilitating greater collaboration and innovation within our business," said Tom Klein, Executive Vice President for Sabre Holdings.

Webb will assume his new role as President, Sabre Travel Network, on January 1, 2010 and will continue to report to Tom Klein.

About Sabre Travel Network

Sabre Travel Network, a Sabre Holdings(R) company, provides the most comprehensive end-to-end solutions for corporate and leisure travel. The Sabre(R) GDS is the foundation for these solutions, providing a ready-built efficient marketplace that connects travel suppliers, including hundreds of airlines and thousands of hotels, with more than 55,000 travel agency locations. Currently, Sabre collectively handles over 70 percent of the BTN 100 bookings.

Sabre Holdings connects people with the world's greatest travel possibilities by retailing travel products and providing distribution and technology solutions for the travel industry. More information about Sabre Holdings is available at <http://www.sabre-holdings.com>.